Please join us for the third annual Jacki and Bruce Barron Cancer Research Scholars’ Symposium, bringing together collaborating scientists from City of Hope and prestigious Israeli institutions to share the latest innovations and advancements in cancer treatment and prevention.

The symposium is open to a diverse audience from all backgrounds who have a shared interest in solving some of our most pressing questions about how we can ultimately prevent and cure cancer.

Kindly reply to Linda Bruce at (626) 218-6414 or lbruce@coh.org.

Seating for the symposium is limited. R.S.V.P.s are accepted on a first come, first served basis.
